

Qantas Status Support August

Status Support

Since March 2020, Qantas has offered their members a range of support options to retain their tier including status extensions, Status Credit boosts and the ability to earn them on the ground. Qantas are now extending that support even further.

Eligible members could benefit from an extra year of status and a Status Credit rollover.

Status Extension

Qantas will extend the status for Qantas Frequent Flyer members who:

- Hold Platinum One, Platinum, Gold or Silver status and have not been able to earn the required Status Credits to retain their status; and
- Have a status end date between 31 July 2022 and 30 June 2023

Qantas members who have received complimentary Gold status, or complimentary Platinum One member and those on Status Hold are eligible to have their status extended if they meet the above criteria.

Status Credit Rollover

Qantas will also rollover eligible Status Credits earned in the membership years ending between 31 July 2022 and 30 June 2023, up to cap of at least 40% of the Status Credits required to retain a member's status.

The maximum number of Status Credits that will be rolled over are as follows:

	Platinum One	Platinum	Gold	Silver
Status Credits	1,800	500	250	100

Qantas Covid-19 Update

Qantas welcomes the National Cabinet's decision to remove mask requirements onboard domestic flights. In line with this change, from 9 September 2022, Qantas' customers will no longer be required to wear masks onboard Qantas domestic flights.

Qantas will continue to make masks available onboard and appreciate that some customers may wish to continue wearing them.
