Mission Statement

M & J Chickens is a respected supplier of high quality poultry based fresh products, value added, flavoured, and fully cooked meals and meal components to the hospitality, foodservice and retail market segments in Australia. The company leadership and dedication of employees, ensures we supply our customers with superior quality products and a service recognised as second to none.

Company Ownership

M&J Chickens was established as a family business in 1982, as a supplier of superior quality, specialised poultry products to the hospitality industry. The company's founders, Mr. Mina and Mrs. Jenny Souris, are still actively involved in the overall direction of the company. Today we have grown into a respected, multisite supplier of poultry-based, value-added and cooked products to the Australian and global food service sector.

The success of M&J Chickens, is based on the commitment, expertise and skills of its proprietors, management and employees. These qualities have seen the company grow from a single-facility poultry supplier in Marrickville to a major multi-site food solutions company, committed to a superior program of continuous improvement.

We now supply an extensive range of fresh poultry, value-added and fully cooked solutions to a diverse mix of hospitality, foodservice and consumer market segments across Australia and internationally. These are serviced by our six locations in Sydney, Brisbane, Townsville, Melbourne, Perth and South Australia, reflecting the director's insistence on having the highest quality facilities available in the major centres in Australia.

Quality Statement

M&J Chickens maintains a Quality Management System ISO 9001- 2008 certified by SGS (Certification No AU02/1717) and is audited twice yearly.

The state Food Authority conducts an Audit twice yearly and will verify that M&J Chickens complies with all Federal and State regulations. The NSW Food Authority also audits on behalf of the commonwealth Export approval authority.

The Marrickville site is also now Export Accredited. Export Establishment 200 and Est. 228.

M&J also maintain a HACCP Food Safety System (Certification No FSAU 02/565).

The company maintains an audited Halal Certification.

Quality and Food Safety is maintained by sourcing our raw materials and ingredients only through approved suppliers who meet the stringent specifications required by the M&J Chickens Supplier Approval Program including abiding by the Australian Chicken Meat Federation Code of Practice. No hormones are added to any product supplied to M&J Chickens. M&J regularly audit high risk suppliers and of course have a comprehensive internal audit program including monthly GMP audits and six monthly full audits. These audits include a review of required preventative systems including Pest Control, Chemical Supply, calibration and SDS / Instrument of Approval document maintenance.

The Product Recieveal, Boning, further processing, cooking and dispatch has been risked assessed using HACCP assessment tools and Critical Control Points established. These CCP's include temperature maintenance of all coolrooms < 3 degC and freezers < -18deg C.

Cooking and Pasteurisation is monitored by calibrated instrumentation and detailed logs are maintained of all batches. Batch numbers of all products and ingredients are recorded to ensure traceability. M&J maintain a full recall system and test the system annually with a Mock recall.

An extensive verification program is conducted which includes two weekly microbiological testing by a NATA accredited laboratory of both cooked and raw product. Environmental testing is done in-house to monitor the extensive and detailed sanitation program.

Full product specifications are in place and are available on request.
