How our Smart Property Solution works

Procurement Australia's Smart Property Solution has been specifically designed as a one-stop-shop to meet the varying needs of our members who work tirelessly to provide the most vulnerable Australians with a safe place to call home.

This solution provides a hassle-free way for Procurement Australia members to manage every element of the accommodation process, from fitouts and minor works.

through to the provision of household white goods, furniture and even plates and knives and forks.

Our Smart Property Solution takes the trouble out of the often-complex housing set-up and maintenance process.

This solution works to consolidate all your accommodation needs into one streamlined solution to meet your organisation's specific processes and desired outcomes.
